Introduction

Cornelius Ward Friend was born in Western Maryland in 1804. Cornelius was the son of John Friend Jr. (1764 to 1849) and Elizabeth Ward (1778 to 1845) as well as grandson of John Friend Sr. (1728 to aft 1808), founder of Friendsville, MD. Cornelius grew up on the family farm known as “Friend’s Delight” in the Sang Run area of Allegany (Garrett) County, Maryland. Cornelius would marry Sarah Kemp¹ and together, they traveled to Carroll County, Ohio to begin a new life and family. Trouble would soon enter the lives of Cornelius and Sarah. Cornelius, who was active in the local government, had signed a “security (money) bond” for the county. Unfortunately, the sheriff of Carroll County absconded with the funds. Cornelius was imprisoned for a short time, for he was responsible for funds and unable to repay this debt. Elijah Friend, brother of Cornelius, would travel from Maryland to Ohio on horseback and gain his brother’s release through the governor of Ohio.² Cornelius and his family returned to Western Maryland with few possessions.

Cornelius Ward Friend would prosper once again when back in Western Maryland. Cornelius is listed in the US Census as a hunter and then a farmer, yet, he would be much more than an average farmer. Cornelius became a large-scale stock raiser, Justice of the Peace and owner of both a grog and grocery shop. Cornelius remained in the Friendsville area the majority of his life. In his later years, Cornelius moved to Preston County, WV and built a fine home. Cornelius Ward Friend passed away just a few months before his eightieth birthday. Cornelius was returned to Friendsville where he rests, with Sarah, in the Blooming Rose Cemetery.

There are no known photographs of Cornelius Ward Friend, or of his wife, Sarah Kemp. We are fortunate that Cornelius Ward Friend lived a long and full life. Many of Cornelius' descendents still live in the Friendsville area and have generously donated family Bibles, marriage records, photographs and family histories to the Friend Family Association of America (FFAA) Library. This book is a continuation of the works started by Patty (Friend) Thompson's "John Friend Sr. of Friendsville, MD" (2007) and Patrick T. Smith's, "John Friend, Jr. of "Friend's Delight" Sang Run, Maryland (2007). We have attempted to chronicle the life of Cornelius Ward Friend and his descendents in order to preserve this information.

Sir:

Herewith are returned the papers in the claim of Clara B. Friend, widow of Ira E. Friend, late of Co. D, 3^d P. H. B., Md. Inf., Ctf.No. 518,427, including a report submitted by Special Examiner C. M. Gilpin; all of which you are now requested to forward to the special examiner whose district includes Somerset Co., Pa., for action as hereinafter indicated.

The evidence now secured shows that this claim was false and fraudulent from the beginning, by reason of the fact that the ex-pensioner was not the legal widow of the soldier, he having been previously married to one Sarah Friend, from whom he was never divorced. The ex-pensioner was also not entitled under the act of June 27, 1890, as the evidence tends strongly to show that she had property left her by the soldier to the value of over seven thousand dollars, and some testimony tends to show as much as nineteen thousand dollars. This ex-pensioner and her witnesses well knew that she was not the legal widow, by

DEATH OF IRA E. FRIEND.

The Ex-County Commissioner Expired Last Friday at His Home Near Friendsville.

Ira E. Friend, a veteran of the War of the Rebellion and an ex-County Commissioner of this county, was born in Carroll county, Ohio, Oct. 19, 1830, and died at his home at Blooming Rose on Friday last, July 27th, 1900, aged 69 years, 8 months and 8 days, after an illness of several months.

The deceased was the son of Cornelius and Sarah Kemp Friend, who were among the first settlers of what is now Sang Run. Shortly after their marriage they removed to Carroll county O., where the subject of this sketch was born. When about fifteen years of age his parents returned to Maryland and at the age of 21 years the Cherry Hill tract of land, lying near Friendsville, was purchased upon which they made their home for a number of years.

A young man, full of patriotism and in sympathy with the cause of the Union, Mr. Friend in 1862, offered his services in the defense of his flag. He became a sergeant in Company D, Third Maryland Infantry, which went from this section of the country, and was later promoted to orderly sergeant. After taking part in the various battles in which his command participated he was taken prisoner, with many of his comrades, at the battle of Harper's Ferry and was sent to the parole camp at Annapolis, Md. After his release from prison he reentered the army and was promoted to a lieutenancy. At the close of the war and after a service of four years, he was given an honorable discharge.

The year following his return from the war Mr. Friend was married to Miss Clara B. Sisler, and their only son, Cornelius, named in honor of his grandfather, was born as a result of this union. The same year that he married Mr. Friend purchased a portion of the tract of land known as Blooming Rose and made his home there until his death. The farm comprising six hundred acres of well cultivated land, furnished a basis upon which Mr. Friend gathered around him all the comforts of life. Besides farming Mr. Friend was engaged in the stock business on a large scale until a few years ago, when he retired from active life, turning his affairs over to his son who has been equally successful in his business ventures.

Being an active and aggressive Republican Mr. Friend was frequently called upon to serve his party in various positions of trust and honor. In 1884 Mr. Friend was elected tax collector for the county and acquitted himself to everyone's satisfaction during the two years of his incumbency in office. In 1892 Mr. Friend was a candidate for the House of Delegates but was defeated by a small majority, his defeat being due to purely local issues. In 1894 he was elected as County Commissioner for a term of four years. He was made President of the Board by his associates and during his term of office the onerous duties devolving upon him were performed without fear or favor. He was conscientious and fearless public servant. After his retirement from the Board in 1898 he was taken sick and never regained his health.

Religiously Mr. Friend was a Methodist being a member of the Blooming Rose M. E. church for more than 27 years. A year ago he took an active part in securing funds with which to erect a new church at Blooming Rose, contributing liberally to the enterprise himself.

Mr. Friend's funeral took place on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. R. Heunen, the new church edifice being packed to its doors by the friends and relatives of the deceased who was held in high esteem by all who were acquainted with him. The interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

AN UNCOMMON SIGHT - When White Rock native Samuel W. Friend, pictured above, hopped behind the wheel of his new Chevrolet touring car in the 1920's, he became one of the first residents of that region of the county to own an automobile. Samuel, who drove a Gulf Oil truck for 44 years with no accidents, was the father of nine children, including Robert W. Friend who was a member of Northern High School's first graduating class in 1953. Samuel was the son of Milton O. Friend and the grandson of Cornelius Ward Friend, who served the county as a tax assessor and also operated a general store and blacksmith shop near Blooming Rose Road. About the Authors

Patricia Ann (Friend) Thompson was born and raised in Garrett County, Maryland. Pat is a descendant of John Friend Sr., (Cornelius Ward Friend's grandfather) through his sons John Jr. and Charles. Patricia (or Patty) is also a descendant of numerous established Garrett County families such as Enlow, Harvey, Tasker, Murphy, Upole and Thrasher. Patty is a Life Member (#889) of the FFAA, currently serving as 1st Vice President of the organization. Patty's first book "John Friend Sr. of Friendsville, MD" (2007) chronicled the life of Cornelius Ward's grandfather. Patty currently lives in Frederick County, Maryland with husband, John (Scoop) Thompson and their three dogs.

Patrick T. Smith was born in Oakland, Maryland and grew up in Western Maryland. Patrick is a graduate of Frostburg State College (B.S.), West Virginia University (M.S.) and Texas A&M University (Ph.D.). Patrick currently works at the National Institutes of Health at Bethesda, Maryland as a research chemist. Patrick is a descendant of John Friend Sr., (Cornelius Ward Friend's grandfather) through his sons John Jr. and Joseph. Patrick is also a descendant of numerous established Garrett County families such as Echard, Frantz Harvey, Hinebaugh, Glotfelty and Wilson. Patrick is currently the 2nd Vice President of the FFAA as well as a Life Member (#1102) of the FFAA. Patrick lives in Frederick, Maryland with his wife, Roxanne and daughter Emma Gustav Smith.
