Introduction

Nils Larsson Friend (Frande) was one of those early adventurers who traveled from Sweden to Upland (West Chester, PA) in 1648. Nils Friend's adventurous spirit was instilled in his children who ventured into the unexplored areas of Southern Pennsylvania, Western Maryland and Northern Virginia¹ during the time that those areas were considered wilderness. Nils Friend's sons, grandsons and great grandsons were some of the first northern Europeans to explore this new ground.

The primary goal of this book is to collect and correlate the vast amount of information that has been published about Nancy Friend. It is my hope is to preserve the available records of the life of Nancy Friend and her family for those who follow.

I welcome any additions or corrections to this information. I can be contacted through the FFAA at Friendsville, MD or by e-mail through the FFAA web site.

f. Notes on John Currence

1. William Currence emigrated to America from Ulster, Ireland, when but 17 years old and eventually settled in the Tygart Valley, now Randolph Co., WV, built the first mill in the county, built Currence Fort and is said to be the first white man killed by the Indians west of the Alleghany Mountains.

John Currence was a member of the first grand jury of Randolph County in 1797, Sheriff in 1806 and Captain of the County Militia in 1805. He lived eight years less than a century, dying 30 July 1849 and is buried beside his wife in the Currence Wamsley Cemetery about 4 miles south of Huttonsville, WV –

Rosabelle Cowden, daughter of George and Anna Cowden, was born April 8, 1858, departed this life Feb. 27, 1936. On April 3, 1876 she was united in marriage to Robert Cummings, who passed away in 1907. To this union nine children were born: Harrison, Anthony, Robert Frazier and Golda Pearl, who died in infancy; Mrs. Ida Sinclair, Mrs. Lillie Skinner and Mack Cummings survive. On Feb. 16, 1912, she was again united in marriage to Levi McColpin, who died Jan. 5, 1925. Again in June 1933, she was united in marriage to Henry Draper who survives her. Several years ago she united with the M.E. Church of Russellville where she lived a faithful Christian life. She was a faithful wife, a loving mother, a good neighbor and friend and will be sadly missed by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her going besides her husband and children, one brother L.S.
